

Infinitive and gerund worksheet.Exercise 1: Full Infinitive, Bare Infinitive, or Gerund

1. I enjoy ____ (read) books in my free time.
2. She promised ____ (help) me with my homework.
3. He decided ____ (go) to the gym every day.
4. We can't afford ____ (take) a vacation this year.
5. After school, they prefer ____ (play) basketball.

Exercise 2: Full Infinitive, Bare Infinitive, or Gerund

1. My favorite activity is ____ (swim) in the ocean.
2. They plan ____ (visit) their grandparents this weekend.
3. I need ____ (study) more to pass the exam.
4. Please remember ____ (lock) the door when you leave.
5. She tried ____ (fix) her computer herself.

Exercise 3: Full Infinitive, Bare Infinitive, or Gerund

1. It's important ____ (eat) a balanced diet for good health.
2. The teacher encouraged the students ____ (participate) in class discussions.
3. John wanted ____ (buy) a new car, but he couldn't afford it.
4. They decided ____ (watch) a movie instead of going out.
5. I'm excited about ____ (travel) to Europe next summer.

Exercise 4: Full Infinitive, Bare Infinitive, or Gerund

1. I regret ____ (tell) her about the surprise party.
2. She can't stand ____ (listen) to loud music.
3. The children love ____ (play) in the park.
4. They hope ____ (win) the championship this year.
5. I'm considering ____ (take) a cooking class.

Exercise 5: Full Infinitive, Bare Infinitive, or Gerund

1. Let's go ____ (see) the new movie at the cinema.
2. He offered ____ (help) me with my math homework.
3. She can't imagine ____ (live) anywhere other than the city.
4. They enjoy ____ (travel) to exotic destinations.
5. I'm looking forward to ____ (meet) your family.